

First United Methodist Church Commerce

July 2015

Hello church,

God has blessed us with the opportunity to be in ministry together! I'm Rev. Brian Dierolf (pronounced 'Deer off'), and I'm thankful to be your new Associate Pastor and Campus Minister.

Campus ministry is near and dear to my heart! I met my wife Lauren at the University of North Texas, and the Denton Wesley Foundation was our home away from home. I became the Pastor's Assistant, which led me to answer my call to ministry. I am living proof of the potential fruits of campus ministry! I cannot express in words how much it means to me to now have the humbling vocation of helping shape college students' relationship with Jesus Christ!

I'm from San Antonio and hold a B. A. in Psychology and a Masters of Divinity from Brite Divinity at TCU. I have several years' experience in youth ministry and also many serving as an Associate Pastor. Most recently, I served FUMC Grand Prairie for three years and before that at FUMC DeSoto for four and a half years. I have a passion for mission/outreach ministries! I also thoroughly enjoy, and grow spiritually from: preaching, teaching, and pastoral care. I tend to be organized and analytical. In June, I was 'Ordained in Full Connection.'

I'm a life-long Jazz and Blues fanatic! I love cheering on the Texas Rangers, being in Nature, watching funny TV, reading Science Fiction, learning about other religions, and eating all types of food! Both Lauren and I spoil our Shih Tzu Poodle, Ella.

Lauren and I have been married for over 9 years, but she gets credit for over 14 since we've been together since college! She has a journalism background and has been a Middle School English teacher for 8 years. She will be teaching Writing and ESL in Community ISD. Both of us are excited about returning to our roots by being involved in campus ministry!

God Bless, Brian

Colors and Seasons By: Dr. Gregory S. Neal

Throughout the history of the Church various colors have been associated with the different "Seasons" of the Church Year. Unlike the secular Calendar, the Church Year runs from Advent, starting either the last Sunday in November or the first Sunday in December, and running through Christ The King Sunday near the end of November. This Year the first Sunday of Advent is November 29.

The colors for the season of Advent are Purple and Blue; it is a special time of preparation in which Christians begin by anticipating the second coming of Christ, and then turn to prepare to celebrate the birth of Jesus. The Season of Advent ends on Christmas Eve, with the beginning of the Christmas Season. The colors for Christmas are White and Gold; it is a time of celebration, praise, and thanksgiving for the incarnation of God in Jesus Christ.

Epiphany ends the Christmas Season, and the Sundays after Epiphany are designated by the color green. The first Sunday focuses on the Baptism of Christ and the last Sunday focuses on his Transfiguration and on those days white is used.

The color for the season of Lent is purple; this season begins on Ash Wednesday, usually in mid-February, and lasts for 40 days, not counting the Sundays. The word "Lent" comes from the Anglo-Saxon word "lencten," which means "spring." The season is a time of profound preparation for the celebrating of Easter. Historically, Lent began as a period of fasting and preparation for baptism by converts to the faith, and then over time became a period of confession and penance practiced by all Christians. The First Sunday in Lent describes Jesus' temptation by Satan and the Sixth Sunday (Passion or Palm Sunday) deals with Christ's victorious entry into Jerusalem and his subsequent passion and death. Because Sundays are always considered "little Easters," the penitential spirit of Lent should always be held in check with the reminder of the coming resurrection. Lent comes to a close in Holy Week first with Maundy Thursday—a time to remember the evens of the Last Supper—and Good Friday, when we remember our Lord's death on the cross. The color for Good Friday is either black or red.

The Season of Easter is set apart with the colors of white and gold, and begins with the setting of the Sun on Holy Saturday evening and continues to the Day of Pentecost. This season supposed to be the most joyous time of the Christian year. It focuses, of course, upon Christ's resurrection and ascension. The ancient Christian name for this season is "Pasch," derived from Hebrew and meaning "deliverance" or "Passover." The resurrection is, therefore, closely linked with the Exodus. The origin of the English word "Easter" is hotly disputed, but some scholars think that it may come from the Anglo-Saxon spring goddess Eastre and her annual festival of fertility.

Easter Season closes with Pentecost Sunday. The color for Pentecost is red, which symbolizes the powerful presence of the Holy Spirit, who birthed and empowers the Church as the Body of Christ. Contrary to common misconception, there is no "Pentecost Season." Rather, we designate this period as "the Sundays After Pentecost." The Season is technically known as "Ordinary Time," and the color for it is usually green, although there are alternatives to only using green for this, the longest season of the Church year. In Roman Catholicism special Saints Days are commemorated with Red, as are ordinations and funerals. Similarly, in the old Methodist Church it was common practice to use red from Pentecost Sunday through the third Sunday of August, only switching to Green for the last months of the season. Beginning with the liturgical renewal of the 1980s, many United Methodist Churches went to green beginning almost immediately after Pentecost; green symbolizes the life of Christ in the church, and hence it is an appropriate color for the Sundays After Pentecost. However, many others (myself included) prefer to maintain red through the first half of Ordinary Time in order to serve as a reminder that it is only through the power and presence of the Holy Spirit that we, as the Body of Christ, live and move and have our being. This year we will stick with red through the third Sunday of August, switching to Green on August 30th. The change makes for a refreshing difference in what is, otherwise, the longest – and hottest – season of the Church year. And, frankly, I like how I look in red vestments and would like to wear them on more than just one Sunday a year. Volume 13, Issue 7

To our Commerce Church and Wesleyan Family,

Thank you for a beautiful send-off, filled with prayers, food, hugs, tears, and laughter. Thank you also for the amazing memory book (especially Angela Roberts and Kay Jensen). We will treasure it forever.

You are all so special to us. We have felt so loved over the last 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ years; you have taken such good care of us.

We pray that you will show that same love to Brian and Lauren as they join your fold. In this transition, they have quickly become friends of ours, and we are excited about what they bring to the FUMC Commerce and Wesleyan family.

We pray for your continued strength and calling as you serve the people of Commerce and beyond, and we are so grateful for our time with you.

In Christ's love, Marc, Michelle, and Ian

Reading the Bible Daily

As you seek to grow closer to God through daily prayer and Bible study, you may have your own favorite daily readings. If not, you will find Scriptures for each day listed below. We hope you'll read daily and ask yourself: "How will I be different today because of what I just read?" Some other questions you might ask are: What does this text say about who God is?" "What does this text say about who I am/who we are as human beings?" "What does this text say about our relationship with God?" You may want to reflect on paper with a journal or note pad. We hope this will become a part of your daily prayer time.
